How to determine if you should call 911 or 311

911

Any Emergency, Life Threatening Event or Crime in Progress

311

By-law infractions, City services or general inquires

Home Safety & Security

Always remember to lock your doors and windows at all times for your home and vehicles

Have sufficient security lighting around your home

Install smoke detectors on every level of your home and change the batteries with each time change

Have emergency numbers posted on your fridge or anywhere accessible to you and your children and teach them how to use these numbers or call 911

Keep you land line until your children are old enough to know their own address as only landlines have the correct home address when calling 911

The Victim Crisis Unit (VCU) is dedicated to providing professional assistance and crisis counselling to victims of crime or tragic circumstances. The VCU also ensures that victims have access to the many resources and programs offered in the Ottawa Area.

The Victim Crisis Unit is staffed with professional Crisis Counsellors who are available to help if you are in need of support or have any questions with regards to being victimized or suffering from tragic circumstances.

Victims who contact the VCU can expect a risk and needs assessment by a trained professional crisis counsellor. Crisis Counsellors may also provide victims with crisis and post trauma counselling, information about the criminal justice system, support, advocacy, and referral to external resources for longer term support.

Please be aware that we do not operate a 24 hour Crisis Line. You may be required to leave a message and one of our Crisis Counselors will return your call as soon as possible.
